

Summary Report on World Parkinson's Day Celebration

On the occasion of "World Parkinson's Day" 11th April, 2017 RK Physiotherapy and Rehabilitation Research Centre managed by School of Physiotherapy, RK University organized a "FREE AYURVEDIC HEALTH CHECKUP & TREATMENT CAMP" at RK Ayurvedic Hospital, Tramba.

The members of the "Parkinson Disease Supportive Group (PDSG)" managed by RK Physiotherapy and Rehabilitation Research Centre visited RK Ayurvedic Hospital with

Dr. Khyati Tada, Mr. P. M. Jani, President, PDSG and Mr. J. D. Parmar, Secretary, PDSG.

Dr. Priyanshu Rathod, Director, School of Physiotherapy, Dr.

Pushpalata Kamble, Principal, Ayurvedic College and PG Scholars had welcomed all the members on the special day. .

The camp began with physiotherapy and Ayurvedic check-up and treatment as follows....

✚ Panchkarma (Snehan-oiling, Swedan-fomentation-full body or particular part of the body, Nasya-medicated nasal drops, Shirodhara-medicated oil on the head)

As per the need tablets and kwath was prescribed and given free to members. Lunch followed by Vote of thanks from Mr. Shivlal sir Ramani, Registrar, RK University, at the end.