

Date: 8th September, 12

Summary report of Celebration of World Physiotherapy Day on 8th September

On worldwide celebration of WORLD PHYSIOTHERAPY DAY on 8th September, 2012, students and faculties of School of Physiotherapy had organized a WALKATHON on global theme of “Movement for Health” around police Head Quarter Gait (Nal-Circle), Racecourse Ring Road, Rajkot during 7:30 am to 9:30 am. More than 200 supporters including medicos, clinical physiotherapists, and citizens were actively participated.

Mr. Denis Patel, Vice president, RK University, Mr. Shivilal Ramani, Registrar, RK University, inaugurated the session and released the supporters for a walkathon.

Recognised by the Indian Association of Physiotherapy (IAP)

IAP is a member organisation of WCPT

www.rku.ac.in

Moreover, leading clinical physiotherapists, Dr. Dilip Doshi, Dr. Manish Pathak, and convener of the Indian Association of Physiotherapists (IAP), Dr. Devangi Vaishnav has also joined and supported the walkathon. Mr. P. M. Jani, President, Parkinson Disease Support Group, and Secretary Mr. J. D. Parmar have supported the event. Shri Janak Kotack, first citizen and mayor, Rajkot has also joined in walkathon and encouraged all supports

Students and faculties of School of Physiotherapy had arranged health and fitness challenges for peddlers and health conscious people jogging at race cross ring road. Big FM and Red FM have also forwarded public information and interview on Air.

Medicos had wonderful time with community to introduce awareness about health and wellness

Quality of care

Health and fitness challenges with people with different age

Challenge – couple with balloons to blow in one minute

Educational based competitions for students on celebration of World Physiotherapy Day at School of Physiotherapy.

The Team at Glance

If you want to keep healthy, keep moving – all through your life