

SUMMARY REPORT OF INDUSTRIAL VISIT

On 20th October 2018, Students of 5th semester BPT visited well known industry Falcon Pumps Pvt. Ltd under guidance of faculties of school of physiotherapy. Students have observed the workers, Workplace and workplace environment. They got opportunity to experience and practice complete rehabilitation procedure starting from observation of posture, Identification of major occupational health hazards, incorrect techniques while working and workplace analysis

Initially they were explained about the work of the industry and brief idea about working procedure of workers.

After that the students have observed working pattern, posture and major stress area of body during each position.

After the observation of all the area, Exam papers were given to students for the purpose of AAC exam

The students were having lifelong learning experience under guidance of Dr. Namrata Sojitra and Dr. Bhakti Desai.